Hexindai Completes Submission of P2P Compliance Self-Inspection Report

BEIJING, Oct. 15, 2018/PRNewswire/ — Hexindai Inc. (NASDAQ: HX) (“Hexindai” or the “Company”), a fast-growing consumer lending marketplace in China, today announced it has completed the submission of its P2P Compliance Self-Inspection Report to the Beijing Municipal Bureau of Financial Work, completing one of three key steps for compliance with industry reforms from the National P2P Rectification Office.

Hexindai is actively supporting and participating in this compliance process, which aims to foster the stable growth of the P2P lending industry in China. The result of this process will be a set of standards and best practices across the whole industry to protect the interests of both borrowers and lenders.

Now, Hexindai will focus on the next two steps in the process, including an inspection conducted by Beijing Internet Finance Industry Association. This will be followed by verification of inspection results by the Beijing Municipal Bureau of Financial Work with field inspection and possible final check by higher level government organizations.

While most P2P platforms based in Beijing will be inspected on site for verification by district-level financial bureaus, Hexindai is one of the few key platforms that will receive field inspection by the Beijing Municipal Bureau of Financial Work, demonstrating Hexindai’s leading industry position and its contributions to industry best practices and benchmarks.
