Hexindai Announces Strategic Investment to Expand its Funding Sources

BEIJING, Dec. 10, 2018 /PRNewswire/ — Hexindai Inc. (NASDAQ: HX) (“Hexindai” or the “Company”), a fast-growing consumer lending marketplace in China, today announced that it has signed a term sheet with a target company to acquire a minority equity stake in the target company for a consideration of RMB200 million.

In addition to the equity investment, under the terms of the transaction, Hexindai will cooperate with the peer-to-peer lending (“P2P”) platform of the target company, starting in 2019, for three years, and from which Hexindai will generate revenue. The proposed transaction is subject to definitive agreements to be entered between the parties, and further information about the target company will be disclosed once such definitive agreements have been executed.

Mr. Xinming Zhou, Chief Executive Officer of Hexindai, commented, “We are very happy to enter into this strategic cooperation. The target company is a well-known brand in the finance industry in China, and this cooperation will bring great synergies to both platforms. This creates a great opportunity for us to leverage our strong borrower acquisition and loan development capabilities to generate additional revenue. Meanwhile, the advantage of the target company in attracting funding from its individual investors will largely complement our business as a new and cost-effective funding source and will help facilitate more loans.”

“In light of the current market volatility, it is particularly important for us to seek strategic partners and diversify our funding sources. Going forward, we will continue to explore similar opportunities, strive to increase confidence in Hexindai’s future, and become nimbler through these challenging times.”
