Hexindai Acquires Equity Stake in Indonesian Online Lending Platform Musketeer

BEIJING, Aug. 14, 2018 /PRNewswire/ — Hexindai Inc. (NASDAQ: HX) (“Hexindai” or the “Company”), a fast-growing consumer lending marketplace in China, announced that it entered into definitive agreements to acquire a 20% equity stake in Musketeer Group Inc. (“Musketeer”) on August 9, 2018, an Indonesian online lending platform that offers consumption installment loans, for approximately US$1.6 million, and simultaneously completed the acquisition.

“Our investment in Musketeer is our first cross-border investment and the first step in our larger strategy to explore overseas opportunities by leveraging our extensive experience and expertise in new high-growth markets,” said Mr. Xinming Zhou, Chief Executive Officer of Hexindai. “Indonesia’s youth demographics and economic development creates a significant opportunity for us to benefit from the online lending boom in Indonesia. Musketeer’s corporate values and strategy are closely aligned with ours, which I believe will facilitate a close relationship that will allow us to share our experience and support them as they grow.”

Indonesia’s growing population of over 262 million and youthful demographics have enormous consumption potential and a strong demand for borrowing having been underserved by traditional financial institutions. Indonesia’s solid internet infrastructure and growing mobile penetration rate will support the long-term sustainable growth of online lending industry. The Indonesian government has introduced clear and definitive regulations that govern the industry and welcomes both foreign and domestic investors. Hexindai believes that Indonesia’s vast online lending market and open regulatory environment present a significant growth opportunity to invest in as its first step into overseas markets.
