(1) Total loan volume facilitated is defined as the total principal amount of loans facilitated on our marketplace during the relevant period.

(2) “Gross billing amount” is defined as the aggregated loan facilitation fees and loan management fees charged to borrowers before cash incentives, net of value added tax. It differs from the revenue recognized at the time of recognition. For an individual secured loan transaction, the gross billing amount equals the gross accumulative loan management service revenue recognized over the term of the secured loan. For the traditional individual credit loan transaction, as the loan facilitation service fees are charged upfront upon the release of funds to borrowers, the gross billing amount equals the loan facilitation service revenue, while for the newly introduced individual credit loan we launched from third quarter of fiscal year 2018, the service fees are charged each period, the gross billing amount equals the gross accumulative loan facilitation service revenue recognized over the estimated term of the credit loan.

(3) “Gross billing ratio” is defined as the gross billing amount divided by loan volume facilitated, presented in percentage. It is an operation metric we believe is a more accurate indicator of profitability.

(4) Refers to borrowers who recorded successful borrowing activity on our online marketplace during the relevant period.

(5) Refers to investors who made loan investments on our online marketplace during the relevant period.

(6) Adjusted net loss (Non-GAAP), which excluded share-based compensation expenses.

(7) Adjusted EBIT (Non-GAAP), which excluded interest income, income tax and share-based compensation.

Six Months Ended September 30, 2018 Operational Data

Loan volume facilitated

Total loan volume facilitated during the six months ended September 30, 2018 was US$481.2 million (RMB3.2 billion), an increase of 2.2% from US$458.7 million (RMB3.1 billion) during the same period of fiscal year 2018.

Number of borrowers

Number of borrowers was 31,162 during the six months ended September 30, 2018, a decrease of 12.1% from the same period of fiscal year 2018.

Number of investors

Number of investors was 106,432 during the six months ended September 30, 2018, an increase of 33.4% from the same period of fiscal year 2018.

Total loan volume facilitated through Hexindai's platform was approximately US$3.0 billion (RMB19.9 billion) from the inception of its business in March 2014 through September 30, 2018.

Mr. Xinming Zhou, Chief Executive Officer of Hexindai, commented, "This quarter was certainly challenging for us and the entire P2P sector as the overall market environment shifts around us. The industry is gradually weeding out firms who are financially weaker, fraudulent or unable to maintain compliance standards leaving only the best run remaining. One of the strategic pre-emptive steps we took during the quarter to stay one step ahead of the industry was to protect our existing investors as liquidity in the market tightened and demand for loan transfer products increased. In response, we reduced new loan offerings on our platform and placed a priority on promoting loan transfer products to increase their liquidity and meet the growing demand. While our top line decreased significantly as a result, these steps helped strengthen confidence in our platform and the loyalty of existing investors."

"We nevertheless outperformed the industry average across a number of metrics. Loan balance for the entire sector decreased 25% year-over-year and 17% sequentially during the quarter. This compares to the 88% year-over-year increase we saw and 11% sequential decrease we had during the same period. I believe this speaks to the strength of our platform, strict compliance standards, advanced risk management, product competitiveness, and the trust investors have in us."

"In the long run, regulatory changes will have a positive impact on the industry. We recently completed the submission of our P2P Compliance Self-Inspection Report as the first step and are nearing completion of step two out of the three for full compliance which involves under-going an onsite inspection of our operations by Beijing Internet Finance Association. Increased regulation will raise the barriers to entry and will create a healthier market environment across the sector. This will allow us to leverage our strong cash position and improved risk management, operational efficiency, and marketing capabilities to consolidate the market. Our ability to maintain stringent standards and prioritize our investors has increased our confidence in Hexindai's future and strengthened our ability to lead the P2P industry through this challenging time."

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We used adjusted net (loss) income, adjusted EPS and adjusted EBIT, non-GAAP financial measures, in evaluating our operating results and for financial and operational decision-making purposes. "Adjusted net (loss) income" is net income before share-based compensation expenses. "Adjusted EBIT" is earnings before interest, income taxes and share-based compensation. We believed that the non-GAAP financial measures helped identify underlying trends in our business by excluding the impact of share-based compensation expenses, which were non-cash charges. We believed that the adjusted net (loss) income, adjusted EPS and adjusted EBIT provided useful information about our operating results, enhance the overall understanding of our past performance and future prospects and allow for greater visibility with respect to key metrics used by our management in its financial and operational decision-making.

The non-GAAP measures were not defined under U.S. GAAP and was not presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP. This non-GAAP financial measure had limitations as analytical tools, and when assessing our operating performance, cash flows or our liquidity, investors should not consider them in isolation, or as a substitute for net income, cash flows provided by operating activities or other consolidated statements of operation and cash flow data prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

We mitigate these limitations by reconciling the non-GAAP financial measures to the most comparable U.S. GAAP performance measure, all of which should be considered when evaluating our performance.

For more information on this non-GAAP financial measures, please see the table captioned "Reconciliations of GAAP and non-GAAP measures" set forth at the end of this press release.

Exchange Rate Information

Our business was conducted in China, and our financial records were maintained in RMB, our functional currency. However, we used the U.S. dollar as our reporting currency; therefore, periodic reports made to shareholders will include current period amounts translated into U.S. dollars using the then-current exchange rates, for the convenience of the readers. The financial information was first prepared in RMB and then was translated into U.S. dollars at period-end exchange rates in the H.10 statistical release of the Federal Reserve Board as to assets and liabilities and average exchange rates as to revenue and expenses. Capital accounts were translated at their historical exchange rates when the capital transactions occurred. The effects of foreign currency translation adjustments were included as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) in shareholders' equity. We make no representation that any RMB or U.S. dollar amounts could have been, or could be, converted into U.S. dollars or RMB, as the case may be, at any particular rate, or at all. The PRC government imposes control over its foreign currency reserves in part through direct regulation of the conversion of RMB into foreign exchange and through restrictions on foreign trade.

Recent Developments

In December 2018, Hexindai began sharing credit data with Baihang Credit, the first credit-reporting platform for the online lending sector that is backed by China's central bank. Hexindai and other partner companies will make regular transfers of data to Baihang Credit, which will then integrate and process the data collected and transmit individual credit information back to its partner companies. The data shared on the platform will help Hexindai assess its customers' creditworthiness, speed up credit assessment processing and potentially reduce the cost of risk management.

In October 2018, Hexindai completed the submission of its P2P Compliance Self-Inspection Report to the Beijing Municipal Bureau of Financial Work, and are nearing completion of step 2 with an on-site inspection of the Beijing Internet Finance Association. The completion of these mark the first two of three key steps for compliance with industry reforms issued by the National P2P Rectification Office. Hexindai is now focusing on the final third step in the process, including verification of inspection results by the Beijing Municipal Bureau of Financial Work with a field inspection and potentially a final check by higher-level government organizations. Hexindai is actively supporting and participating in this compliance process, which aims to foster the stable growth of the P2P lending industry in China.

In October 2018, Hexindai established an agreement with Shell Energy (China) Limited, a subsidiary of Royal Dutch Shell, to provide price hedging for a substantial volume of National Carbon Allowances (NCA) and support liquidity and market developments of China's National Emissions Trading Scheme (ETS). The agreement is set for three years and will commence when the cement sector is enrolled in China's national emissions trading scheme (ETS) and the Chinese carbon offsets, such as Chinese Certified Emission Reduction (CCER), can be used for compliance purposes. China has already announced plans for a nationwide emission trading scheme in late 2017. The scheme will cover the power industry with plans to expand over seven sectors including petrochemicals, chemicals, cement, and other building materials. The agreement demonstrates Hexindai's commitment to preserving the environment and promoting environmental protection throughout its business.
