Hexindai to Launch Consumer Installment Financing Platform

BEIJING, July 1, 2019 (PR NEWSWIRE) — Hexindai Inc. (NASDAQ: HX) (“Hexindai” or the “Company”), a fast-growing consumer lending marketplace in China, today announced that it will further diversify its business by launching a new e-commerce installment financing platform “Hexin Installments”.

The new platform will offer carefully curated categories for installment financing, such as electronic products, education and travel products and services. With convenient installment payments, consumers can easily purchase competitively priced products and services on the platform.

Hexindai will cooperate with institutional partners as funding sources to provide installment financing for consumers on the platform. The company will attract and acquire users through its existing and effective online channels. Hexindai’s powerful risk management system and technology infrastructure will provide a solid footing for the new platform to grow.

“With the upgrade of consumption in China, the use of installment payments has been gaining momentum in recent years, and it has become the preferred payment method for more and more young consumers,” said Mr. Xiaobo An, Hexindai’s Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. “Our new installment financing platform will leverage our rich experience in consumer financing and strong technology advantage in matching borrowers and lenders in large scale to meet the growing financing demand from the new generation consumers. It will also help further diversify our businesses and drive our future growth.”
