Hexindai Diversifies Funding Sources by Partnering with Bohai International Trust

BEIJING, Jan. 11, 2019 /PRNewswire/ — Hexindai Inc. (NASDAQ: HX) (“Hexindai” or the “Company”), a fast-growing consumer lending marketplace in China, today announced that it has established a partnership with Bohai International Trust Co. Ltd. (“Bohai International Trust”), a leading trust company in China, as part of its strategy to diversify and expand its funding sources from individuals to institutional investors.

Under the terms of the agreement, Bohai International Trust will facilitate personal credit loans through a designated trust for an initial aggregate principal amount of RMB300 million to borrowers referred by Hexindai. The initial term of the agreement is five years. Hexindai will carefully evaluate borrowers using its advanced risk management and credit assessment capabilities before referring them to Bohai International Trust who will conduct a second credit assessment before funds are distributed. Hexindai will receive service fee revenues from Bohai International Trust for borrower referral, credit assessment services, and assistance in the loan facilitation process.

“Our partnership with Bohai International Trust is a significant step in our strategy to diversify our funding sources with the addition of institutional investors,” said Mr. Xinming Zhou, Chief Executive Officer of Hexindai. “We are excited to begin working with Bohai International Trust to realize major strategic business synergies by leveraging our combined credit assessment capabilities to target our core demographic of borrowers, those seeking medium-sized consumer credit loans with loan terms of 36 months. To further strengthen deterrence against fraud and defaults, all defaulters will be reported to the Credit Reference Center of the People’s Bank of China, which operates and maintains a database of personal credit reports. With a diversified funding structure and reduced funding costs, we will have greater corporate flexibility to weather fluctuations in the market and better serve our customers.”
